On the supervisory duties must be described, if applicable.

September 1962 to Describe 1963, was reassigned to the Branch on 13 July 1964 after completing the six months Junior Officer Trainee training course.

Having had previous experience in Cuban operations, Mr. Piccolo was immediately assigned the duty of assisting in the debriefing of a Cuban Intelligence Service defector. Mr. Piccolo performed this in a very capable fashion and his efforts significantly increased the flow and quality of information from the defector,

Also during this period Mr. Piccolo was sent TDY to Brussels, Belgium, to handla, debrief, and participate in the training of a very Important -- but difficult to handle -- newly recruited Cuban agent.
Inastuch as this agent was expecting to return to Cuba soon, Mr. Piccolo was responsible for "wrapping up" in the field (with Headquarter's direction) all the necessary elements including radio communications, S/W, and concealment devices to dispatch the agent to Cuba. In this exceedingly difficult assignment Mr. Piccolo performed well, displaying considerable resourcefulness and initiative.

Mr. Piccolo's fluency in Spanish makes him a particularly valuable officer for WH/SA/CI operations. He is a concientious, dependable, intelligent, and well-educated officer who gets along well with his fellow employees.
